Dear Dick:

I have just finished reading through the reports which you sent me of your Catholic/Jewish programming. They are really fantastic - innovative and exciting in every way, worthy of national reproduction and distribution. It is something which I hope to be able to get to when I return from the Biennial and have a chance to sit down and write out the kind of programming that I used to do. In the meantime, I am taking the material with me to Dallas and will be using it at our inter-religious forum as an example of Part V, I.

Moreover, I am taking the liberty of sharing it with Father Ed Flannery, head of the Catholic/Jewish Relations Committee for the Conference of Bishops in Washington. Not only do I want him to see it, but I think he can also find use for it.

Congratulations. A good work well done. If you need any resources, such as copies of the Vatican Guidelines, my office might be able to provide you with some.

If the attached KNOW HOW TO ANSWER kit is of any value to your dialogue group, we have them in quantity and can make them available to you at $1 per set.

All the best,

Rabbi Balfour Brickner
