

JEW-CHRISTIANS — About 140 Jews and Christians of Mobile, in an attempt to better understand each other's faith, are members of a dialogue group. Pictured at the most recent dialogue are, from left, Philip Gonzalez, a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church; Mrs. Barbara V. Paper, director of religious education at Spring Hill Avenue Temple; the Rev. John Pawlikowski, a Catholic priest from Chicago, Ill., who was guest speaker, and Rabbi Steven L. Jacobs, spiritual leader of Spring Hill Avenue Temple. Upcoming programs for those involved in the dialogues are: Jan. 19 — A presentation of "The Messiahship of Jesus from the Christian Perspective" by Sister Teresa

Bretthauer, minister of religious education of Holy Family Catholic Church in Mobile; Feb. 16 — A presentation of "The Messiah (Messianism) from the Jewish Perspective" by Rabbi Jacobs; March 5 — A presentation of "Israel and the Diaspora" by Rabbi Jacob Petuchowski, professor of liturgy and Hebrew at Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati, Ohio, and April 6 — A presentation of "The Holocaust from a Christian Perspective" by Dr. Franklin Littell, religion professor at Temple University in Philadelphia, Pa. All programs for the group are at 7:30 p.m. at Spring Hill Avenue Temple. (Staff Photo by Dave Hamby)
