

Jewish, Christian dialogue

Paul Filben of the Diocesan Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs Commission opened the third year of Jewish - Christian Dialogue Sunday at the Spring Hill Avenue Temple with an overview of Jewish - Christian relations.

The program will continue with five sessions, one each month through April. It is to promote understanding between Christians and Jews. Each session consists of a lecture, followed by a question and answer period and small group discussions.

The next dialogue will be Nov. 16, when the Rev. John Pawlikowski of the Chicago Theological Union lectures on "Pharisees and Pharisaism."

Future lectures include "The Messiahship of Jesus," January; "The Messiah," February; "Israel — The Diaspora," March; and "The Holocaust," April.

All sessions will be at Spring Hill Avenue Temple.

Persons interested in additional information about the program may write to Mr. or Mrs. Paul Filben, 1537 Deerwood Drive East, Mobile, 36618, or to temple staff, P.O. Box 7295, Mobile, 36607.
