

"את חג המצות תשמור שבעת ימים תאכל מצות"

"You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread - eating unleavened bread for seven days as I have commanded you..." EXODUS 23,15.

MOBILE AREA JEWISH - CHRISTIAN
DIALOGUE

"A PASSOVER SEDER"

At the Dauphin Street Synagogue- April 3,
1984 - 1717 Dauphin St. 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Reservations Please

Before March 30, 1984

We will be using the 1982 New Edition of the Conservative Hagadah

Led By
Rabbi Stanley R. Gerstein with
Guitar-accompanied singing
Interpretive readings and meditations, transliterations,
Full explanations of all rituals,
and special selections on the diaspora,
Israel and the holocaust.

Concepts to be Discussed:

"We are all God's Partners," "We are responsible for each other," "Revelation and our lives," "Pluralism and the Religious Life," "Through observance we can Encounter God's Presence," Israel as a matter of theological importance," "The theological explanation of the enigmatic "sh'fokh Hamatkah." "Parallels between Passover and Easter," "The name, date and differences between Passover and Easter"

"The Seder and the Last Supper"
For Reservations please call:

Synagogue - 476-6010

Temple - 478-0415

Cost of Dinner: $5.00