THE MOBILE AREA JEWISH-CHRISTIAN DIALOGUE

IS PROUD TO PRESENT

RABBI ASHER FINKEL

"STANDING BEFORE GOD":
THE BIBLICAL EXPERIENCE OF PRAYER

Asher Finkel was born in Jerusalem and educated in the United States and in Europe. He was ordained at Yeshiva University-Theological Seminary and he received his doctorate from Tübingen University in West Germany. Professor Finkel taught at Tübingen, Brown and New York Universities and currently is a full professor in the graduate department of Judeo-Christian Studies at Seton Hall University. He published a comparative study of the "Pharisees and the Teacher of Nazareth" (Leiden: Brill, 1974) and he recently coedited and contributed to a liturgical study of "Standing Before God" (New York: Ktav, 1981). He has contributed to different scholarly journals both here and abroad. He lectures on the early history of Judaism and Christianity and has participated in ecumenical work, including a visiting professorship of Scriptures at Maryknoll School of Theology.

We are indeed, pleased to have Professor Finkel with us in Mobile and hope that you will mark your calendars now!

Your attendance at the January lecture was outstanding and gives evidence: ---the Mobile Area Jewish-Christian Dialogue is alive and well. Please join us again this month to hear this notable speaker and share an evening of dessert and dialogue with your friends and the Rabbi.

DATE: February 16, 1987 MONDAY!

TIME: 7:30 PM

PLACE: St. Ignatius Church, Tuthill Lane

Looking forward to seeing you there.....and bring a friend.

Shalom,

Paul & Mary Silber
