

Welcome to the eighteenth year of JEWISH-CHRISTIAN DIALOGUE, another year of exciting and informative programs. In keeping with the special significance of "18" in Judaism (Chai), this Dialogue year will focus on the theme of LIFE (Chai).

TOPIC	PRINCIPALS	DATE AND PLACE
"And the Angels Sing"	Port City United Voices Ira and Pat Swingle The Bob Schultz Orchestra Gumbo Bay Jazz Band, etc.	October 13, 1992 7:30 Springhill Avenue Temple
Chanukan Celebration	Rabbi Steven Silberman Congregation Ahavas Chesed Mobile, Alabama	December 10, 1992 7:30 p.m. Congregation Ahavas Chesed
"The Circle of Life" Living with Loss, Healing with Hope"	Rabbi Earl Grollman Rabbi Emeritus Beth El Temple Belmont, Massachusetts	January 19, 1993 7:30 p.m. Place to be Announced
"So You Think You You have Problems with Your Family" Relationships in the Bible through the Eyes of the Midrash	Dr. Norman J. Cohen Dean of Hebrew Union College Institute of Religion Presented by Springhill Avenue Temple	January 29, 1993 7:30 p.m. Springhill Avenue Temple
Finding Common Ground For Dialogue on the Issue of Abortion	Cathy O'Keefe Department of Health, Physical Education and and Leisure Services University of South Alabama Debi Mishael Director Religion School Congregation Ahavas Chesed	February 4, 1993 Time and Place To be announced
Seder	Rabbi Donald Kunstadt Springhill Avenue Temple	March 18, 1993 6:00 p.m. Dauphin Way United Methodist Church
Yom Ha Shoah Holocaust Memorial Service		April 18, 1993 7:30 p.m. Congregation Ahavas Chesed