Dr. Susannah Heschel

“From Warsaw to Selma”

The Mobile Christian-Jewish Dialogue in cooperation with the Mobile Jewish Welfare Fund invites you to join us in welcoming to Mobile, Susannah Heschel. Dr. Heschel is a distinguished scholar, teacher, author and lecturer and the Eli Black Professor of Jewish Studies at Dartmouth College. She is the daughter of Abraham Joshua Heschel (1907 – 1972) one of the “outstanding Jewish thinkers of the twentieth century” who is internationally known as a scholar, activist and theologian. Among his many works are “God In Search Of Man”, “Man Is Not Alone” and “The Sabbath.” Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel marched with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and throughout his life, was involved in civil rights and social justice issues for all people.

Susannah Heschel won the National Jewish Book Award and the 2000 World Union for Progress Judaism Award for her book, “Abraham Geiger and the Jewish Jesus.” She has edited seven books and numerous articles related to her areas of expertise: Jewish Feminism and German-Jewish Relations. We are, indeed, fortunate to have her come to Mobile and we hope you will mark your calendar. Don't miss this opportunity! All are invited to stay for a reception and book signing following the lecture.
