

The Mobile Christian-Jewish Dialogue

in cooperation with

Celebration 2000 Interfaith Committee

welcomes

Dr. Ron Kronish to Mobile

Dr. Ron Kronish welcomes
Pope John Paul II to Israel

As the Pope returns to Rome, we are indeed, privileged to welcome to Mobile, Dr. Ron Kronish. Rabbi Kronish is the Director of the Interreligious Coordinating Council (ICCI) in Israel. The ICCI is an umbrella organization for institutions and individuals in Israel promoting interreligious and intercultural understanding. As a coordinating body, the ICCI strives to strengthen and broaden good relations among different faith communities in Israel.

Dr. Kronish earned his baccalaureate degree from Brandeis University and his Ph.D in education from Harvard University. He is a rabbi, lecturer, educator and author and works tirelessly in interfaith relations. His work includes dialogue with Jews and Christians, Jews and Muslims and dialogue with the three Abrahamic faith groups. Rabbi Kronish works with both adults and young people to bring hope for the peace of Jerusalem and throughout the Middle East. He and his wife, Amy and their three daughters live in Jerusalem. They have lived in Israel for the past twenty years.

Bring a friend with you to hear Dr. Kronish and be sure to mark your calendar now so that you will not miss this exceptional opportunity! We look forward to seeing you.

Topic: Interreligious Relations: Impact of Papal Visit to Israel

Date: April 6, 2000

Place: Westminster Presbyterian Church

Corner Airport Blvd. & Sage Ave.

Time: 7:30 PM

Reception will follow the lecture.....everyone is invited.