Justice and Accountability in the Face of Genocide:
What Have We Learned?

2011 marks the 65th anniversary of the verdicts at the first Nuremberg trial, a watershed moment in inter-national justice, and the 50th anniversary of the trial of Adolf Eichmann, one of the most high-profile postwar recountings of the Nazi genocide and a landmark in public awareness of the Holocaust.

“That four great nations, flushed with victory and stung with injury stay the hand of vengeance and voluntarily submit their captive enemies to the judgment of the law is one of the most significant tributes that Power has ever paid to Reason.”

Justice Robert Jackson
Chief U.S. Counsel, International Military Tribunal,
Nuremberg, Germany, November 21, 1945

This service is open to everyone

To show respect for the place of worship, males are requested to wear head coverings (kippahs) which are provided at entry.
